District Director's Report

By Cindy Dale, Master Rosarian
770-631-3885, rosepro@bellsouth.net

Exciting news! There WILL be a 2023 Fall Conference & Rose Show even though we had no society volunteer to host it! I have put together a group of highly motivated people from across the District to organize a big event like this. Put this on your calendars for October 13-15th in Gainesville. Our Conference Chair is Karen Barnes of Pensacola RS. Thanks to the members that volunteered for this and please let Karen (barneskw@yahoo.com) know if your society can help in any way. We have never hosted an event this way so this will be an experiment and, hopefully, we can use this method again if needed.

Please join me in welcoming a new member of the DSD leadership team. Janet Newburgh (jannewburgh@gmail.com) of Tallahassee RS is the new DSD Consulting Rosarian Chair, replacing Bobbie Reed who requested to step down for personal reasons. Please contact Janet for all Consulting/Master Rosarian matters.

A committee consisting of Ralph Stream, Jean Stream, Sara Coleman, and me recently did an extensive review of the DSD Guidelines for District Meetings and Rose Shows and have made numerous corrections to bring them up to date. Before they can go into effect, they require approval by a majority vote of a quorum of Delegates at the Business Meeting to be held at the upcoming Mid-Winter Meeting. Our DSD Secretary, Sara Coleman (alsara.coleman@gmail.com), recently sent all Presidents a copy of the recommended changes for your review and requested the name of your Delegate and Alternate be sent to her right away. Please make sure Sara has their names, that they are familiar with the changes, and they will be ready to cast one vote per society. Also, let her know if no one is coming from your society.

Greater Atlanta RS hosted a wonderful DSD Fall Conference & Rose Show September 16-18 at Chateau Meichtry in the north Georgia mountains. About 80 people were registered and it was a lovely change of venue. A detailed account can be found later in this newsletter so I will just say that it was great seeing our old and new rose friends in person, participating in the rose show, hearing interesting speakers, and buying needed items from the vendors. Awards were presented at the banquet to the following stellar rosarians who have done so much for DSD: ARS Silver Honor Medal: Sara & Al Coleman and Outstanding Judge: Debbie Coolidge, Congratulations!

The ARS Board of Directors had an online meeting October 12th. The following information was disseminated: there will be an online CR School on the first two week-ends in February and Photography Judging seminar the same month. 878 judges took part in 4 online judge's classes earlier this year. Short video clips on various rose care topics will be produced by ARS and will be available on You Tube. For 2023 there is a projected budget shortfall of $101,000 mostly due to inflation and market pressures but the usual Annual Fund donation of $50,000 from one donor has not been received this year. Please be generous with your ARS Annual Fund donations next year and pay your yearly $70.00 ARS affiliate dues in January just to get it done for the year and so you won't forget later.

Speaking of dues, Kay Harrell, our DSD Treasurer, is now accepting the $25 District dues ($50 for those with over 100 members) for 2023. Thanks to her hard work and follow up, we again had 100% compliance on this for 2022! They are due no later than May but just send them to her in January and check that off your to-do list. Please do not make us nag you.

I'm looking forward to seeing you at the upcoming DSD Mid-Winter Meeting hosted by the Greater Palm Beach Rose Society in Gainesville on January 20-22. The invitation, registration form, and schedule of events were sent out to all editors and Presidents for wide distribution and are on the website. I hope you will give this your immediate attention and register now since the time is fast approaching. They have a wonderful week-end of educational programs, fun social events, and rose vendors planned.

In June, I asked each society to complete a survey saying how many DSD events we should have each year, which ones, should we have a rose show, etc. 14 societies out of 21 replied and I thank those that took the time to reply. Unfortunately, there was no consensus and opinions about how many events to have and which ones were all over the map but this still provided valuable planning information for the Board.

ARS will be holding a National Conference & Rose Show on May 5-8th, 2023 in Shreveport, LA with most activities being held at the American Rose Center & Gardens. That should be peak bloom time for us. They are counting on us to help fill the tables with lots of entries for the Rose Show and are begging any of our societies with rose shows that week-end to please reschedule if possible. This is your chance to see the newly renovated "America's Rose Garden" in all its glory! Please plan on going!

Not long now til Santa comes and brings us all the roses, gardening supplies, and books that we want! I made my "shovel prune" list and then spent days pouring over all my catalogs and checking my wish list against the brutally honest reviews in Horizon Roses to make sure I was getting exactly the roses I wanted. If you need to know how to order a copy of Horizon Roses let me know. When you're making your list be sure to read the reviews in "Roses in Review" and Horizon Roses then check with your Consulting Rosarians to make sure your choices will work for your climate and cultural practices. Order now for spring delivery by mail so you won't miss out on the ones you want or maybe they can be brought to the Mid-Winter Meeting by select vendors to save shipping!

David and I wish you a joyous holiday season!

2022 Roses in Review

By Joseph Woods
josephwood1@mac.com

Happy Holidays Rose Friends,

I hope everyone had a wonderful Thanksgiving with friends, family, and chosen family. As we meander thru the winter months and start to hone in on those roses we'd like to secure for our gardens this coming spring, here is a comprehensive report that can help us do that.

The attached documents are the ratings from our district on each rose that was rated by our members. (editor's note, the files with the results are attached separately).

This is the result of our collective tenacity in getting those surveys done!

I hope everyone has a wonderful holiday season and look forward to seeing you at the midwinter meeting in Gainesville.

DSD 2022 Fall Rose Show

By Bet Sobon, Consulting Rosarian
bet.sobon@outlook.com, 770-561-6846

This years DSD Fall Rose Show and Convention took place in Chateau Meichtry in Elijay, Georgia. It was sponsored by the Greater Atlanta Rose Society. Nestled in the picturesque North Georgia Mountains, Chateau Meichtry was the perfect site for the 'Days of Wine and Roses' event.

The scenery and weather were perfect. The rolling hills of the Appalachians made a nice backdrop as we sat in the outdoor areas having wine flight tastings. Winery visitors were a welcome addition to the event as we were able to meet and talk to them about roses and they viewed the show winners and other entries.

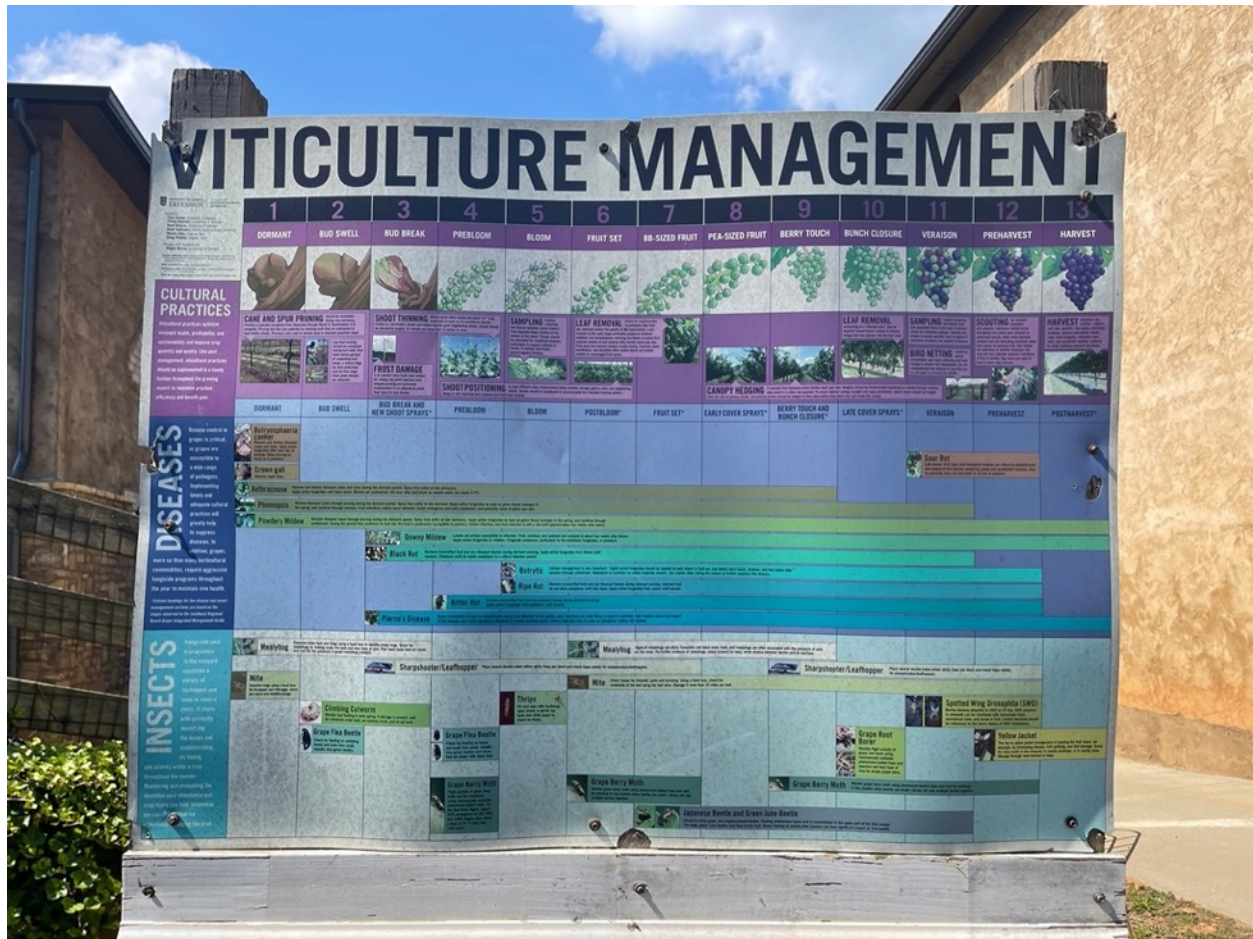

Friday was a BBQ Buffet and then it was all hands on deck to prepare for the show. While the show was in progress, the owner of the Winery gave us a behind the scene tour. The history of the winery began in 1921, at the age of 25, Stephan Meichtry traveled to America from the canton of Valais, Switzerland and settled in New York. He brought his own root stock from Switzerland and grew the vines he used for his lifelong wine-making. It was his grand-daughter who finally realized his dream and started the winery in Georgia. There is even a vine of the original grapevine on the property. On the tour, we learned that growing grapes is a lot like growing roses. The main concerns in this area being late Spring Frosts. We did have one this past Spring in North Georgia and Chateau Meichtry lost about 25% of their crop. The other concerns are pests and diseases. Some wineries plant a rose bush at the end of a row of vines as roses will show disease and pest pressure before the vines. Of course, grape vines have some specific issues and in North Georgia, they not only have to deal with birds, deer but the occasional black bear! The chart below highlights some of the issues the winery has to deal with.

Once the grapes are safely harvested, they are processed. After they are crushed (by machine, not by stomping!) they have to sit and allow the liquid to sink and the skin and stems rise to the top. Occasionally this wine must be pushed down to allow gases to escape. Then the wine is strained and put into vats. Depending on the type of wine they are either bottled or put into barrels for aging.

After the wine tour, there was a wonderful seminar on Chemicals given by Karen Barnes PhD followed by a very inspiring presentation on rose hybridizing given by Steven Roussell.

Then it was time to check out the show winners. Cindy Dale took both the Queen and Best of Show with Sunny Sunday's and a HT Spray of Mom and Pop Wright. There were also some stunning collections and Arrangements. See the full list of winners in the Rose Show Results.

Saturday night was the banquet. We had some great Italian food to go with our wine. There were announcements of awards, notable Al and Sara Coleman winning Silver Medals for their service. Other winners are pictured here:

Hi everyone:

Hope you all had a wonderful THANKSGIVING, we have so much to be grateful for.

Winter is here so they tell me. Low in the 50's and high in the low 70's doesn't translate to winter to me. The roses are blooming with little or no problems and the weeds are having a great time. Weeds did I say weeds. This has been the worst year for weeds in my garden and they just keep coming. If anyone has a solution to keep them at bay without killing the roses please let me know.

I have had the privilege of judging several shows this fall and they were all beautiful. Tallahassee had their first show since COID hit and the quality of the roses was fabulous. Hats off to the Tallahassee Rose Society for having such a wonderful show. November 5th was the first time that the Gainesville Rose Society had a fall show. Once again, the roses were outstanding and the arrangements were just beautiful. Great job Gainesville.

As you know we are planning a DSD Convention and Rose Show for the 13th and 14th of October 2023. The hotel is reserved and the plans are coming together. Thanks to the dedication of all our DSD Rose Societies we are able to continue to have this convention and show. So, mark your calendars and plan on attending.

If any of my Horticultural judges have had a change of address or telephone number or e-mail please advise me so that I can keep everything up-to-date for the DSD records.

Wishing all of you a Blessed Christmas and wonderful and healthy New Year.

Happy holidays to you all. The cooler temperatures are helpful in growing larger blooms and deeper colors in the rose garden. Some of us may actually have nice roses for our holiday table centerpiece. It's nice when you can mix in scented greens right out of the yard (or the neighbors' yard). Until I got lazy, I used to love a real fresh tree for Christmas just for the smell. I still try to buy some boughs for trim around the house.

Our DSD Fall Convention Arrangement Workshop was truly an adventure. The arrangements in wine bottles were used later as table centerpieces. They were stunningly creative. The arrangements in the Rose Show were equally gorgeous. Congratulations to everyone who entered.

A note to all DSD arrangement judges: Make sure you send me your up-to-date contact information.

January 20th (Friday afternoon, 2:00 pm) will be our Mid-Winter Arrangement Workshop. Bring your clippers! Recently, I injured my back and right arm. As a result, I cannot carry heavy boxes or buckets. If you can come to the hotel by noon or 12:30 to help assist, you will have my deepest appreciation and gratitude.

Enjoy this holiday season and may you have a healthy and happy new year. Don't forget to get your Covid booster and flu vaccines before Mid-Winter.

As always, my contact information is: Sandy Dixon, sandyfdixon@comcast.net, 6181 Deepwood Dr. E., Jacksonville, FL 32244-2621. 904-778-2887, c. 904-521-6274.

Consulting Rosarian Report

By Janet Newburgh/ Consulting Rosarian

jannewburgh@gmail.com

240-281-4352

I would like to introduce myself as the new coordinator for the Deep South District Consulting Rosarians. I follow in the very impressive footsteps of Bobbie Reed, who did an incredible job of coordinating this program for many years. I will serve out the rest of Bobbie's term, which runs through 2024.

Roses have been part of my life as long as I can remember. As a very young child in Oklahoma, I used to watch my grandmother start rose cuttings under glass Mason jars. When I was six years old and my family moved to a new home, I was awed by the Paul's Scarlet climbers planted at each end of the clothes lines. My mother also planted several rose bushes at the side of the house that had enormous, gorgeous blooms—they must have been hybrid teas.

After graduate school, I moved to Western Oregon, where roses really thrive. Our home had been the site of an old farmhouse, and gorgeous white roses grew on the fence in front of the house. They were once-bloomers but so thick and beautiful that people would actually drive into the driveway to admire them. I also planted a formal, circular rose garden. We lived at the edge of town and a few deer came to visit from time to time, but they actually were helpful. When aphids attacked new growth on the roses, the deer would eat that new, infected growth, aphids and all, so I never had to spray.

Several years in Suburban Maryland included almost no roses because our house in the woods lacked sufficient sun. However, when we moved to our current North Florida home thirteen years ago, the rose sirens called my name. Land clearing around the house provided some open, sunny spaces, but the heavy presence of deer in our pine flatlands made it necessary to erect eight-foot-tall fences in a couple of areas to make rose-growing possible. The base of those tall fences later had to be hardened to keep out rabbits, which would prune new rose bushes with clean, angled cuts so close to the ground that the plants frequently died. And now squirrels have discovered a safe haven behind my tall fence. Let's hope that they don't like to chew on roses—stay tuned for an update on critters!

I currently grow a wide range of roses, including hybrid teas, floribundas, minis, minifloras, old garden roses, climber-types, shrubs, and a few no-name roses from Ace Hardware that I just can't bear to dig up and get rid of. Most of my roses are planted in the extremely sandy soil of this area, but many of the most successful plants are growing in pots, watered by a homemade automated micro-drip system.

What are my goals as DSD CR coordinator? First of all, I hope to get to know as many of you as possible, and to learn about what you are doing. I plan to attend the DSD Mid-Winter Meeting on January 20-21, 2023, in Gainesville, and I would love to see you there. I want to find ways to support and promote your work as a Consulting Rosarian or Master Rosarian. I plan to continue Bobbie's work of helping you to keep up with the requirements as a Consulting Rosarian and for moving up to Master Rosarian as appropriate, ranging from your maintaining active membership in the American Rose Society and in your local society, to filing your annual Roses in Review report, to helping you keep track of your continuing education and making sure that you are up to date in that regard. I also will want to know about the outstanding activities you are doing as a Consulting Rosarian, and to help you share ideas about how to maximize the value of your service toward promoting the cultivation of America's favorite flower.

The most efficient way for all of us to keep track of our accomplishments over the past year, and to share that information, is to complete and submit the 2022 Annual Consulting Rosarian Report. This form can be found at DeepSouthDistrict.org, under Resources, and Consulting Information. Your Annual Consulting Rosarian Report needs to be completed by February 1, 2023 and emailed or snail-mailed to me, at the address given at the bottom of the form.

Here in the Deep South District, we are blessed with a goodly number of Consulting Rosarians. Still, the more Consulting Rosarians that we have, the better off we are as a community. I hope to find ways to encourage more people knowledgeable in the art and science of growing roses to become Consulting Rosarians. With the huge range of roses currently in existence and the continuing development of new, improved varieties, we have plenty of opportunities for good work!

South Metro RS, Thomasville RS, Tallahassee RS, Tropical RS and Wiregrass RS - you have all sent in your annual DSD dues for 2022!

If your rose society is NOT listed above, PLEASE encourage your society to send in its dues right away! Presently, there are 23 local societies in the DSD and to date 17 of these local societies have paid their dues. That means that 6 local societies have not yet sent in their 2021 Dues! C'mon guys - let's shoot for 100%!!!

FYI - According to the DSD By-Laws, each local society's Annual Dues are due by the end of May and this is now the beginning of September! These annual dues or if you prefer, contribution, are used to pay the nominal but ongoing expenses of the DSD. (Local societies with 100 or more members are asked to pay $50/year and those with less than 100 members are asked for only $25/year.)
